Yi Jing: A Guide for Life

Cristina Bertrand

The Yi Jing is one of the oldest books in the world, and through the millennia its wisdom has shaped the core of Chinese culture and civilization.

However, due to its graphic symbolism (trigrams and hexagrams) and sometimes obscure language it hasn't achieved the same dissemination as other books of Chinese philosophy like the Classical or Confucian books.

Nevertheless, the Yi Jing is the root of all those books and the key to understanding the development of the Chinese nation

Its principles and guidance are a gift from the Chinese sages to the world.

A native of Spain, Cristina Bertrand earned her Ph.D. in Philosophy and Letters at the Complutense University of Madrid, Spain. Her doctoral dissertation about the Chinese book of wisdom, Yi Jing, was an interdisciplinary research in the fields of philosophy, geography, history and art of China.

Dr. Bertrand is an internationally recognized scholar and artist and has completed more than 550 paintings exhibited in galleries in Spain, the United States, Europe and China.

She has lived in Madrid, Los Angeles, New York, Miami, Shanghai and Hong Kong. At present she presides over her China and Hong Kong companies Cristina Bertrand Limited offering through the Kěyǐ School seminars, conferences and workshop of Chinese Culture, and courses of Chinese with the innovative Kěyǐ methodology.
